PENTECOST SUNDAY

This is the day when, true to his promise, Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to the apostles. The coming of the Spirit changed the apostles and saw the launching of a new community (the Church).

This day renews the gift of the Spirit in each of us and in the Church as a whole.

*****

“Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.” Send forth workers into your vineyard. If God is calling you to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life, contact I Fr. Chris Lemieux at 416-968-0997 or e-mail vocations@archtoronto.org

www.vocationstoronto.ca

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come, follow Me. Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to Your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labour. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to Your service. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "Yes" to the Lord Who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

DESCENT OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Everyone seeks to know and remember Christ better. This knowledge was assured to everyone through all ages and times when Christ said to His disciples in bidding them farewell: "If I fail to go, the Paraclete will never come to you, whereas if I go, I will send him to you ." (Jn.16:7) Like the disciples each one of us wished to have Christ remain with us, to enlighten us and strengthen us so that we may arise to live with Him forever.

It is to assure us of His promises that Christ sends us a continuing Gift, the Third Person of the Most Holy Trinity, the Holy Spirit. As the Holy Spirit descended like a flaming gift of light upon the Apostles, so this flame of truth, this most enduring of Gifts, comes to each of us. By this coming of the Holy Spirit to the Apostles, to the Church and to each one of us, Christ, the Son of God, the Second Person of the Most Blessed Trinity, remains with us. Christ with the Holy Spirit remains with us every day of our lives. He seeks us out, even as we seek Him. He is near to us as we call to Him. And He will welcome us into the promised reward of Heaven for our faithful love and service.

Remember, eternity with Christ is everlasting joy, it is our final and best gift, His gift of love.

God our Father, let the Spirit You sent on Your Church to begin the teaching of the gospel continue to work in the world through the hearts of all who believe. Amen.

STS. CHARLES LWANGA AND COMPANIONS

King Mtesa of Uganda allowed the White Fathers to preach the Faith in his country. However his successor, King Mwangwa initiated a fierce persecution against all Catholics. Charles Lwanga the chief of royal pages and twenty one of his companions, who had become Christians, became victims of this persecution. Charles was the first to be burned alive. By his encouraging words and his steadfast faith he left his companions an example. Twelve others followed his fate the same day the others were killed between then, June 3rd, 1886 and January 27th, 1887. These young African men were canonized by Pope Paul VI in 1964.

Father, you have made the blood of martyrs the seed of Christians. May the witness of Saint Charles Lwanga and his companions and their loyalty to Christ in the face of torture inspire countless men and women to live the Christian faith. Amen.

SAINT BONFACE

Bishop and Martyr, Apostle of Germany

St. Boniface was born in the year 680 in Devonshire, England and was baptized Winfrid. From the age of 13 he was educated in the Benedictine Monastery and by 717 he was a renowned teacher and preacher. At the age of 30 he was ordained to the priesthood. He gave up his work to answer a call to work in the mission field, which took him to Friesland, Netherlands. His first attempt was not successful and he returned to England. In 719 he went to Rome presented himself to Pope Gregory II, and asked permission to teach the idolaters. The Pope gave him permission to teach the Faith to the heathens in Germany. The Pope also gave him the Name Boniface He established a number of dioceses in Germany, but chose Mainz as his Episcopal See. He ended his fruitful career by a glorious martyrdom in Friesland, where he had returned to teach the Faith. Legend has it that it was in Germany, after St. Boniface witnessed the worship of an oak tree by pagan people, he got angry and cut the tree down and in the oak's roots a tiny fir tree sprung. St. Boniface took it as a sign of the Christian Faith replacing pagan worship.

Lord, let St. Boniface intercede for us, that we may be loyal to the Faith he taught and for which he shed his blood. Give us also the courage to fearlessly profess our faith in our works. Amen.

ST. NORBERT
Bishop

St. Norbert was born in Kanten on the Rheine about 1080. He was the son of Heribert, Count of Gennep and was related to the imperial house of Germany. The early part of the Saint's life was devoted to the world and its pleasures. This future Apostle entered the ecclesiastical state in a worldly spirit, but was ordained subdeacon. Fear of greater restraint prevented him from receiving higher orders. Nothing short of a miracle was going to make him lead the life of an earnest cleric. An accident became this miracle, through which St. Norbert had a change of heart. While riding to a small village outside of Kanten, a stroke of lightning frightened his horse and he was thrown to the ground and knocked senseless. On regaining consciousness, he became a real penitent. He began to lead a different life. A retreat in a monastery close to Cologne completed his conversion. He prepared for the priesthood and was ordained two years later. He sold all his property and gave the proceeds to the poor. He went from place to place preaching. About 1125 he was forced into accepting the dignity of Archbishop of Magdeburg, but even with this exalted station he still practiced the same austerity he had been familiar with. His zeal effected a great reformation in the diocese. Together with St. Bernard he laboured much to extinguish the disorders caused by the schism of the Anti-Pope, Anacletus. Upon the return from a journey to Rome he fell ill. Being sick for four months he died in the year 1134.

God, You made Your Bishop Saint Norbert an outstanding minister of Your Church by his prayer and pastoral zeal. Through his prayers grant that Your faithful flock may always find pastors after Your heart and salutary pastures. Amen.

*****

PLEASE PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK AND ALL THOSE WHO CARE FOR THEM. ESPECIALLY THOSE AFFECTED BY THE CORONAVIRUS.

Jesus our Lord, we ask You to have mercy on all who are sick. Give them strength and love, and help them to carry this cross with faith. May their suffering overcome the power of evil and lead others to our Father in heaven. Lord Jesus, hear our prayer, for You are Lord for ever and ever. Amen.

O my soul, what joy to have Jesus Christ always with us, and to be able to speak to Him, heart to heart, with all confidence.
