SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

On Mount Tabor Jesus' disciples got a glimpse of the glory that was his as the Son of God. It was a wonderful experience for them, so much so that Peter exclaimed, "Lord, it is good for us to be here." And it is good for us to be here today, because here we get a glimpse of our glory, for we too are children of God.

If you need examples of persons responding to God's call, look at Abraham and Sarah - called in old age to leave their country and have a child. Then Abraham was asked to sacrifice that child. What faith! Answering God's call to be a priest, brother, sister or deacon is also taking a great risk. If you are willing, and think God is calling you to a Church vocation, call Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997 or email vocations@archtoronto.org www.vocationstoronto.ca

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS.

O God, Who wills not the death of a sinner, but rather that he be converted and live, grant we beseech You, through the intercession of the Blessed Mary ever Virgin, Saint Joseph her spouse, and all the saints, an increase of labourers for Your church, fellow labourers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls, through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

SAINT KATHERINE DREXEL

Katherine was born in 1858 into a devout Catholic family that had moved from being poor Austrian immigrants to wealthy bankers in two generations. Her mother died when she was born. Katherine, the second of 3 sisters, was raised by a stepmother with her sisters. Her stepmother taught the girls, by example that their social status brought charitable duties with it. Katherine was carefully educated. When her stepmother died in 1883 her father took the 3 girl to Europe for the second time. That trip impressed Katherine more as she learned about her namesake, great Saint Catherine of Siena. On her return she was determined to become a Nun. Fr. James O'Conner, pastor of the local church, whom Katherine admired, for his concern for the American Indians, counseled her to wait. Her father died in 1885 leaving the girls 15 Million dollars. After her sisters' death, Katherine inherited the whole fortune. (Her last sister died in 1945) Katherine was still searching for a vocation.. (Her concern for the American Indians grew stronger. Katherine went again to Europe, this time to consult Pope Leo XII about what her mission in life should be. He advised her to become a missionary. On her return, with the help of Fr. James O'Conner she entered the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy and took her vows 1895. Katherine eventually formed the Congregation of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament for Indians and African Americans. She gave all her money to charities, helped Universities and foundations. For 75 years Katherine gave all her great energy and income to causes in which she passionately believed in. She slowed after suffering a stroke and died in 1955 with nothing of her wealth to leave. She was canonized October 1st in the year 2000 by Pope John Paul II.

God, let St. Katherine never cease commending us to Your kindness. By imitating her charity and prudence may we succeed in keeping Your teachings and preserving good morals. Amen

SAINT CASIMIR

Patron Saint of Lithuania and Poland

St. Casimir was born in Poland on October 3, 1458. He was the third child of the thirteen children born to Casimir IV, king of Poland and Elizabeth of Austria.

Only 15, he was sent by his father to lead an army into Hungary. Pope Sixtus IV appealed to the king to withdraw his forces and he agreed to discuss peace with Hungary. When the king found, that his son had already ordered a retreat, he banished St. Casimir to the castle of Donzki for three months. St. Casimir vowed to never take up arms against another Christian country. To the people of Poland he became known as "The Peacemaker". He was renowned for his sense of justice and his care for the poor. A lingering tuberculosis ended his brief career. He died at Vilna, the capital of Lithuania in 1482, where he was buried.

Almighty God, by the interceding prayers of St. Casimir help us to serve You in sanctity and justice. Amen.

PRAYER FOR LENT

LORD JESUS, send Your Holy Spirit upon us this Lent that we might faithfully keep watch with You. As we pray to our Father in a spirit of repentance and thanksgiving, help us to turn to our brothers and sisters in love and service. May this sacred season be a time of mercy, a time for us to forgive others as we have been forgiven by You. Bring all of us who worship You as our Redeemer closer together as we prepare to celebrate Your dying and rising. Amen.

LENT

Lent is a Holy Season – a Season different from all other seasons of the church year. The Church intended to make it different, because she demands that her children are more aware of the need to set greater value on their souls than on worldly things.

During the season of lent we are encouraged to repentance, deny worldly pleasures, and be more generous towards our less fortunate brothers and sisters all around us. Remember Jesus loved the poor and sick.

Jesus taught us with authority because He taught by example. Jesus went into the desert, away from all the excitement of daily life, for forty days. These forty days He spent in prayer and fasting. If Jesus who was without sin prayed and fasted for forty days, how much more do we sinners need to do the same.
