PENTECOST SUNDAY

Pentecost saw the birth of a new community, the Church. This is the day the apostles left the upper room, where they had been hiding for fear of the Jews, and went out fearlessly to preach the Gospel to the world.

The confused and fear-filled apostles were totally changed by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit as they became powerful and dynamic proclaimers of their faith in Jesus Christ. In today's Church God calls priests, religious and deacons to serve Him and to serve others especially by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, call many members of our community to be generous workers for your people and to gather in your harvest. Send them to share the Good News of Jesus with all the people of the earth. Father, we ask this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen

Everyone seeks to know and remember Christ better. This knowledge was assured to everyone through all ages and times when Christ said to His disciples in bidding them farewell: "If I fail to go, the Paraclete will never come to you, whereas if I go, I will send him to you ." (Jn.16:7) Like the disciples each one of us wished to have Christ remain with us, to enlighten us and strengthen us so that we may arise to live with Him forever.

It is to assure us of His promises that Christ sends us a continuing Gift, the Third Person of the Most Holy Trinity, the Holy Spirit. As the Holy Spirit descended like a flaming gift of light upon the Apostles, so this flame of truth, this most enduring of Gifts, comes to each of us. By this coming of the Holy Spirit to the Apostles, to the Church and to each one of us, Christ, the Son of God, the Second Person of the Most Blessed Trinity, remains with us. Christ with the Holy Spirit remains with us every day of our lives. He seeks us out, even as we seek Him. He is near tous as we call to Him. And He will welcome us into the promised reward of Heaven for our faithful love and service.

Remember, eternity with Christ is everlasting joy, it is our final and best gift, His gift of love.

God our Father, let the Spirit You sent on Your Church to begin the teaching of the gospel continue to work in the world through the hearts of all who believe. Amen.

OUR LADY, HELP OF CHRISTIANS

When Napoleon, who had conquered Papal States before his exile to Elba, left Elba and returned to Paris to reclaim his power, Murat, French Marchall and King of Naples, prepared to march through the Papal States. Pope Puis VII fled to Savona, where on May 10, 1815 he crowned the image of Our Lady of Mercy. July 7, 1815, after the Congress of Vienna he returned to Rome. In graditude he instituted the feast of "Our Lady, Help of Christians" to be celebrated in the Papal States.

In 1816 the Dioceses of Tuscany adopted the feast and from there it has spread throughout the Latin Church. When St. John Bosco, dedicated the Salesian Congregation in 1868, to Our Lady, Help of Christians, this Feast has attained great fame.

ST. BEDE THE VENERABLE

Doctor of the Church

St. Bede was born in England about the year 673. At the age of 7 he was sent to a Benedict Monastery to be educated. Later he became a Benedict Monk. St. Bede was a most learned man of his time and a gifted writer. He wrote many historical works and beautiful biographies about the lives of Anglo-Saxon Saints. Up to the hour of his death on Ascension Day 735 this Saint was engaged in translating the Gospel of St. John from the Greek. While singing "Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost" – just as he said "Holy Ghost" his soul went forth to meet his Triune God.

All-powerful God, You blessed Saint Bede by giving him the gift of writing. Help us, through his prayers that we may recognize the gifts you have given us and help us to put them to use in your service. We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord. Amen.

ST. PHILIP NERI

St. Philip Neri, was born in Florence, Italy in the year 1515. As child he was already known as "Pippo Buono" (good little Philip) At the age of 18 he was sent to a childless, wealthy relative to become the heir. But God had other plans for him. Guided by the Holy Spirit he soon left for Rome without money or specific plans. When in Rome, he lived in a unfurnished room spending long hours in prayer. Soon he started his "street-corner" apostolate. He encouraged passers-by to "begin to do good" by caring for the sick, aiding the poor and enlightening the uninstructed. Directed by his confessor Philip studied for the priesthood and was ordained May 23, 1551. He laboured unceasingly for the salvation of souls and was so successful, that he was called "Apostle of Rome". St. Philip Neri enjoyed many mystical experiences. God granted him the gifts of prophecy and insight into souls. He celebrated the Holy Eucharist and heard confessions up to the last full day of his life. He died early in the morning May 26, 1595, beloved by all in Rome, where the people acclaimed him immediately a Saint. He was beatified 6 years after his death and canonized in 1623.

Let us follow St. Philip Neri's motto: If you want to be obeyed, don't make commandments. – It is easier to guide cheerful people in their spiritual life than melancholy ones. – Be good if you can.

A WORD FROM OUR FUND-RAISING COMMITTEE

Dear Parishioners,

In past years the Fund-Raising Committee usually raised over $40,000 per year that helped to build our beautiful church. Now, due to the ongoing restrictions, holding fundraising events is impossible.

We realize, that during this difficult time many people are stretched financially. But for those who are in a position to help, we kindly ask that you give a little extra when giving your donation. Remember, although we cannot attend Mass in our church, funds are needed to continue the maintenance of church and grounds. We have to think about the huge loans to the bank, chancery and Family of Faith and we still have to build the rectory.

We hope we will soon be able to tempt you with baked goods, dinners and dances etc. and hope you will support us as you always did,

God Bless,

Your Fund-Raising Committee
