EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Possessions exercise a big hold on our hearts. The result is that we forget the more important things in life. Jesus said our main concern should be to "make ourselves rich in the sight of God." In truth all of us are poor before God. Let us reflect on that for a moment. It is only God who can truly enrich us.

"I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty." Today's readings remind us that the priest is ordained by the Holy Spirit to be the means by which Jesus' words are fulfilled. If you feel God could be calling you to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997 or email vocations@vocations.ca www.vocationstoronto.ca

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, call many members of our community to be generous workers for your people and to gather in your harvest. Send them to share the Good News of Jesus with all the people of the earth. Father, we ask this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen

SAINT JOHN MARY VIANNEY

Patron of Priests

This French priest is universally known as the "Cure of Ars". He was born 1786 near Lyons, France. His parents were respectable, pious farmers. John often said that he owed all his holiest impressions to his deeply religious mother. Even as young child prayer was his delight and his mother saw his extraordinary devotion and wished for her son to become a priest. As 8 year old John was given charge of the cows and sheep on his father's farm. The French Revolution closed their parish church and so John prayed in the fields. After the Revolution John studied for the priesthood and was ordained in 1815. Three years later he was made parish priest in the little village of Ars-en-Dombes.

St. John Mary Vianney was a wonderworker loved by the crowds, but he retained his childlike simplicity, a true priest after the Heart of Christ. His days were filled with works of charity and love, he healed and converted and had time for everybody who came to him. He heard confessions 12 to 16 hours each day. Walking from the confessional to the rectory, pilgrims would be eager to touch him, cut pieces from his clothing and even his hair. When he died on August 4th, 1859 at the age of 73, John Vianney had already the reputation of being a Saint. Saint Pius X beatified him in 1905, and Pope Pius XI canonized him in 1925. In 1929, only 70 years after his death he was named Patron Saint of parish priests. This year Pope Benedict XVI declared this the "Year for Priests" to go coincide with the 150th anniversary of the death of St. John Mary Vianney and during this special year our Holy Father will declare St. John Mary Vianney patron of all priests of the world.

Almighty and merciful God, You made Saint John Vianney outstanding in his priestly zeal and concern for Your people. By his example and prayers, enable us to win our brothers and sisters to the love of Christ and come with them to eternal glory. Amen.

TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

The Feast of the Transfiguration of Christ is celebrated to commemorate the manifestation of the Divine Glory. We know through the Gospels, that in the presence of the Apostles Peter, James and John, Jesus was transfigured as He spoke to Moses and Elijah. As Peter offered to build three tents for Jesus, Moses and Elijah a bright cloud overshadowed them and the heard the proclamation, that Jesus is God's Son and the order to listen to Him.

God our Father, in the transfigured glory of Christ Your Son, You strengthen our faith by confirming the witness of Your prophets and show us the splendour of Your beloved sons and daughters. As we listen to the voice of Your Son, help us to become heirs to eternal life with Him. Amen.

Blessed are they who hope in the Lord

ST. SIXTUS II AND COMPANIONS

St. Sixtus was elected to the Roman See in 257 at the height of the Valerian persecution. He was known as a good and peace loving Pontiff. Only 12 months after becoming Pope, on August 6th, he was surprised while celebrating Mass at the Cemetery of Pretextatus. Sixtus was arrested, taken to court, convicted and brought back to the cemetery to be beheaded on his own Episcopal throne. On the way to his martyrdom St. Sixtus met St. Lawrence who at seeing his bishop being taken to his death, wanted to go with him. Sixtus comforted him by prophesying a "more beautiful crown for him" Six of the Pope's companions were martyred on the same day, St. Lawrence 3 days later.

Almighty God, You gave St. Sixtus and his companions the grace to lay down their lives for Your word and as a witness to Christ. By the power of the Holy Spirit, help us to be quick to believe and unwavering in the profession of our Faith. Amen.

JESUS IN THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

O my God, I firmly believe that Thou art really and corporally present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar. I adore Thee here present from the very depths of my heart, and I worship Thy sacred presence with all possible humility. O my soul, what joy to have Jesus Christ always with us, and to be able to speak to Him, heart to heart, with all confidence. Grant, O Lord, that I, having adored Thy divine Majesty here on earth in this wonderful Sacrament, may be able to adore it eternally in heaven. Amen.
