NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We are servants of God and of one another. But what kind of servants are we? Let us ask forgiveness for our sins of sloth and carelessness in our service of God and of one another.

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven." Each of us must be a living sign and symbol of God's presence within us. If you are willing to witness Christ with your life as a priest, religious or deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997 or email vocations@vocations.ca or visit us at our website www.vocationstoronto.ca

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come, follow Me. Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to Your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labour. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to Your service. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "Yes" to the Lord Who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

Know and believe in God's love for you!

August 9th,

ST. TERESA BENEDICTA OF THE CROSS

(St. Edith Stein)

Edith Stein was born into a large Orthodox Jewish family in Breslau, Germany (now Poland) on October 12, 1891. Edith became a convinced atheist in her school and early university years, thou never ceasing to seek truth. After reading, in one sitting, the autobiography of St. Teresa of Avila, she declared: "This is the truth" and decided to become a Christian. Drown to Catholicism by the example of others she decided to be baptized into the Catholic Church January 1st, 1922. Edith Stein spent 12 years teaching at catholic institutions. In 1934 she joined the Carmelites in Cologne made her final vows 1937 and took the name Teresa Benedicta of the Cross. In 1938, because of Nazi anti-Semitism, which was widespread all throughout Germany, her prioress helped her escape to Holland. This was not a happy move. The Dutch nuns had less respect for her intellect as her German Sisters. On August 2nd, 1942, Sister Teresa Benedicta and her sister Rosa Stein were arrested by the Gestapo and transported to Auschwitz August 7th. She was briefly spotted walking through the camp among the women comforting and helping them. St. Benedicta, although a convert to Catholicism, she never denied her Jewish heritage and accepted her fate as her Cross. She died in the gas Chamber August 8th, 1942. She was canonized October 11th, 1998.

A prayer by St. Edith Stein:

"O my God, fill my soul with holy joy, courage and strength to serve You. Enkindle Your love in me and then walk with me along the next stretch of road before me. I do not see very far ahead, but when I have arrived where the horizon now closes down, a new prospect will open before me, and I shall meet it with peace.

SAINT LAWRENCE

Patron of the poor and of Rome

In 257, when St. Sixtus became Pope, he ordained St. Lawrence deacon and appointed him first of the seven deacons who served in the Church of Rome. In the same year Emperor Valerian ordered that all Bishops, priests and deacons be put to death. As St. Sixtus was lead to his execution, St. Lawrence followed him. At that time he was ordered by St. Sixtus to distribute the treasures of the church among the poor. St. Lawrence did as he was commanded. And so the Church of Rome looked after fifteen hundred poor people. In 258 the Prefect of Rome ordered St. Lawrence to surrender the treasures of the Church. Three days later he exhibited the poor whom he had gathered. The enraged Prefect ordered for St. Lawrence to be slowly roasted on a gridiron. This order was merciful executed with his last breath this holy deacon prayed for the conversion of Rome. Several heathen senators, who witnessed the execution, were converted to Christianity and gave St. Lawrence a decent burial.

Father, You called Saint Lawrence to serve You by love and crowned his life with glorious martyrdom. Help us to be like him in loving You and doing Your work. Amen.

August 14th

SAINT MAXIMILIAN KOLBE

Patron of political prisoners and journalists

St. Maximilian was born in 1894 in Poland. He joined the Franciscans. He founded the Immaculata Movement devoted to Our Lady. Maximilian went to Japan and India to further the Movement.. In 1936 he returned home because of ill health. In 1939, after the Nazi invasion, he was imprisoned and released till he was arrested again and sent to the concentration camp at Auschwitz. There he ministered to other prisoners. On July 31, 1941, in reprisal for one prisoner's escape, ten men were chosen at random to die. Father Kolbe offered himself in place of a young husband and father. His offer was accepted. After two weeks without food and water all had died except Maximilian, so he was dragged out of his death-cell and given a lethal injection.

Lord, You inflamed St. Maximilian with love for the Immaculate Virgin and filled him with zeal for souls and love for neighbour. Through his prayers, grant that we may work strenuously for Your glory in the service of others and so be made conformable to Your Son until death. Amen.
