TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Once, Jesus was invited to a supper. During the supper he commented on how the guests were fighting for the places of honour. At Mass Jesus invites us to his supper. He is the host we are the guests and every place is a place of honour. Let us humble ourselves before God and ask pardon for our sins.

Our second Scripture reading reminds us that "Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father ...". God's gifts should prompt a response of gratitude, which should be the basis of our daily lives. If you feel God is offering you the gift of priesthood, religious life or diaconate, and you wish to respond generously, trusting in God, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, at 416-968-0997, or email: vocations@vocations.ca. www.vocationstoronto.ca

WE NEED MORE PRIESTS AND RELIGIOUS. PLEASE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

September 3rd SAINT GREGORY THE GREAT Patron of Teachers

St. Gregory was born at Rome about the year 540. He was the son of a wealthy senator and after acquiring the usual thorough education, Emperor Justin the Younger appointed him Chief Magistrate of Rome, when he was only 34 years of age. After the death of his father he build six monasteries in Sicily and a seventh in his own house in Rome. Here he himself assumed the monastic habit in 575. In 578 he was ordained deacon and was sent to Constantinople as papal ambassador. In the year of 586 he was recalled to Rome to become abbot of his monastery. 592, after the death of Pelagius, St Gregory was unanimously elected pope. He fed starving Romans, was just towards his tenants, protected the rights of Jews, his was political diplomatic and he maintained contact with all the Churches of Christendom. All this helped earn him the title "Great". St. Gregory is credited with developing the "Gregorian Chants", but this has been disputed. This great Pope died in 604. He is a Doctor of the Church.

God, You look upon Your people with compassion and rule them with love. Through the intercession of Pope St. Gregory, give wisdom to the leaders of Your Church. Amen.

September 4th, ST. ROSALIA Patroness of Sicily

Rosalia was the daughter of Sinnibald, a descendent of the royal family of Charlemagne. From a very young age Rosalia despised worldly honours. She might have become a Basilian nun, but later lived as a recluse in a cave on Mount Pelegrino, about five kilometers from Palermo. She lived there for 16 years practicing austere penances whilst her soul was constantly united to God in prayer. Rosalia died on September 4th, 1160 and was buried in a grotto under the mountain forgotten by the world. It is claimed that it was St. Rosalia intercession that saved Sicily from the plague in 1625. Pope Urban VIII enrolled her in the Roman Martyrology. Numerable cures have occurred at her shrine. Pope Pius XI raised her feast day to the rank of a holy day of obligation in Palermo. There the citizens celebrate her feast day by carrying the Saint's shrine in procession on top of a large carriage drawn by forty mules while prayers and hymns are sung in honour of St. Rosalia.

She is not just venerated in Palermo, her native city, but throughout Sicily, of which she is patroness.

As this is the year dedicated to St. Joseph; Let us pray

O blessed St. Joseph, faithful guardian and protector of families, to whom God entrusted Jesus and Mary. We implore you by the love ou did bear them, to preserve us from every defilement of soul and body that we may always serve them in holiness and purity o love. Amen.

PARISH NEWS

Remember we are celebrating Holy Mass every weekday, Monday to Friday, at 7:30 in the Morning. What a wonderful way to start the day. At 7:10 a.m. we honour our Holy Mother by praying the holy rosary. Come and join us.
