BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Today we celebrate the Baptism of Jesus, Jesus the Sinless One, joined the queue of sinners, and was baptized by his cousin, John, in the waters of the Jordan. He did so in order that He might free us from the power of sin. Let us pause to call to mind our sins, and our need for purification and liberation.

As John the Baptist introduced the people of his time to Jesus a voice from heaven said, "You are my Son, the Beloved, with you I am well pleased." Perhaps God is calling you to do the same in our time as a priest, deacon or religious. If He is contact Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997.

A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, call many members of our community to be generous workers for your people and to gather in your harvest. Send them to share the Good News of Jesus with all the people of the earth.

Father, we ask this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen!

January 9th

BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Jesus came to John the Baptist at the river Jordan, to be baptized by him. John, who new Jesus to be the Messiah, expressed the need to be baptized by Jesus. Jesus, knowing the Father's divine plan, asked John to baptize Him to fulfill all righteousness. When the Lord had been baptized, the heavens opened and the Spirit came down like a dove to rest on Him. Then the voice of the Father thundered: This is my beloved Son; with Him I am well pleased.

Almighty, eternal God, when the Spirit descended upon Jesus at His baptism in the Jordan, you revealed Him as Your own beloved Son. Keep us, Your children born of water and the Spirit, faithful to our calling, Amen.

STS. JULIAN AND BASILISSA

Saints Julian and Basiliss, though married, lived in perpetual chastity by mutual consent. They turned their home in Egypt into a hospital in order to help the poor and the sick. Basilissa cared for the women and Julian took care of the men. At times the housed a thousand destitute people. Basilissa died after suffering severe persecution. Julian received his crown of martyrdom during the reign of Maximin II in 313 many years after Basilissa did. There are many churches in the East and West bearing one or the other of these Martyrs. During the time of St. Gregory the Great, (6th century) St. Julian's scull was brought from the East to France and given to Queen Brunehault ; she gave it to the convent which she founded. Later part of the scull was presented to the monastery of Morigny and part to the church of the Regular Canonesses of Balilissa in Paris.

SAINT MARGUERITE BOURGEOYS

Marguerite was born in Troyes, France in 1620. She was the sixth of twelve children. She sought to enter the religious life when she was twenty years old, but for some reason was rejected by both the Carmelites and the Poor Clair's. On the advice of a priest she formed a group of "extern Sisters" with other young women. They taught children in poor districts in Troyes. This was however discouraged by the religious authorities. Her opportunity to follow her missionary calling came in 1653, when the French settlement of Ville-Marie, now Montreal, was in need of a school mistress. In October 1653 she was at her post, where she was looking after children, worked in hospitals, assisted couples preparing for marriage introduced vocational courses and so became the soul of the settlement. In 1570 she went back to France to inspire more young women to teach in the new world. She with fellow teachers formed the Congregation of Notre Dame. They worked wherever they were needed. Today members of the community she formed work in many parts of the world. Marguerite was canonized in 1982.

Almighty God, You called Saint Marguerite of Bourgeoys to leave her homeland and educate the young in the Christian Faith. By her example and prayer, direct our words and deeds that we may walk in Your ways and proclaim the loving presence of the Word made flesh among us. Amen.

PARISH NEWS

Remember we are celebrating Holy Mass every weekday morning (Monday to Friday) at 7:30 in our church. What a wonderful way to start the day. Before Mass we honour our Holy Mother by praying the Holy Rosary. Come and join us. Please come and celebrate Holy Mass with us. Can't come to church? We want you to know that you can watch Fr. Jan celebrating all Masses via https://cdn.boltwave.com/ga_brampton_on_ca_cdn_stream.html

As we celebrate the Baptism of our Lord Jesus Christ, let us think of our own baptism.

At Jesus' baptism the heavens opened and a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased." After His baptism Jesus began His short but all-powerful public ministry. He taught in word and deed, he performed many miracles and he showed His great love for us by dying on the cross to atone for our sins.

At our baptism God called us also His beloved child. Through baptism we became His children and heirs of His kingdom. At baptism we too are called to be witnesses to God, like His Son, our Lord Jesus. Are we always doing so? Are we following the example of our brother Jesus with our words and deeds? Are we following His teachings and love all our neighbors? Let us think of what our baptism should mean to us and act accordingly.

Our loving Father in heaven help us to remember the great kindness You showed us at our baptism. Lord Jesus, our faithful and merciful brother, show us the way to well please our Father in heaven. Amen.

THE SYNOD ON SYNODALITY:

Pope Francis has launched the Synod on Synodality, an ambitious two-year global process of listening to the faithful.

"Synod" comes from an ancient Greek word meaning "walking together on the road." There have been many synods in the history of the Church, but these have traditionally been opportunities for bishops to come together to determine the path forward for the Church.

With the Synod on Synodality, Pope Francis is asking every Catholic to help discern what the Holy Spirit is telling us at this moment as the Church enters its third millennium.

The first phase of the Synod on Synodality will last through the first half of 2022 and will see the world's faithful sharing their thoughts at a diocesan level. All those diocesan-level responses will be collected and summarized. Then the bishops of Canada will meet to discuss what they heard in their respective dioceses, followed by larger multinational meetings and, ultimately, culminating in a synod of bishops in the Vatican in 2023.

Prayer in Honour of the Holy Family

GRANT us, O Lord Jesus, faithfully to imitate the examples of Thy Holy Family, so that in the hour of our death, in the company of Thy glorious Virgin Mother and St. Joseph, we may deserve to be received by Thee into eternal tabernacles. Amen.
