FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In the beatitudes we see the values a Christian should live by. While they present a great challenge, they also offer great rewards both here and hereafter. Alas, the values we live, by often have little to do with the values of the Gospel. Christ helps us to live by his values.

No prophet is accepted in the prophet's hometown. Do not be discouraged by jeers when considering priesthood, diaconate, or religious life. If God is calling you contact Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997. Email vocations@archtoronto.org

WE NEED MORE PRIESTS AND RELIGIOUS

Heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, call many members of our community to be generous workers for your people and to gather in your harvest. Send them to share the Good News of Jesus with all the people of the earth. Father, we ask this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen

SAINT JOHN BOSCO

Priest, Patron of Editors

St. John Bosco was born on a poor farm near Turin, Italy, in 1815. As a very young child he helped by tending sheep. At the age of nine he expressed the desire to become a priest. It was not easy, but the family gave John the education needed to become a priest. The day before St. John Bosco entered the seminary, his mother seeing her son in his clerical dress said to him: "To see you dressed in this manner fills my heart with joy. But remember that it is not the dress that gives you honor, but the practice of virtue. If at any time you come to doubt your vocation, I beseech you, lay it aside at once. I would rather have a poor peasant for my son than a negligent priest." This "Apostle of Youth" founded the Salesian Society of St. Francis and the daughters of Mary Help of Christians. Today the motto on the Salesian coat of arms: "Give me only souls and keep all the rest," bears witness to the fidelity of Don Bosco to the words of a truly Christian mother. His life's work was consecrated to the care of young boys and girls. He died in 1888 and was canonized in 1934.

Lord, You called John Bosco to be a teacher and father to the young. Fill us with love like his: may we give ourselves completely to Your service and to the salvation of all. Amen.

February 2nd

THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

This feast is also known as the Purification of the Blessed Virgin, and Candlemas Day.

According to the Law of Moses a mother had to be purified forty days after giving birth. Being righteous Mary and Joseph went to the Temple of Jerusalem for Mary to be purified and to present Jesus to the Lord and offered a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons as the Law of Moses required. It had been revealed, by the Holy Spirit, to a man by the name of Simeon, that he would not die before he had seen the Messiah. The Holy Spirit led Simeon to the Temple as Jesus was presented to the Lord. He took Jesus into his arms and proclaimed that now the Lord is dismissing him, because he had seen the Lord's salvation. Then Simeon blessed the Holy Family and told Mary that a sword will pierce her own soul too.

Almighty and ever-living God, on this day Your only Son was presented in the Temple as sharing in our human nature. We humbly ask that we too may be presented to You with purified intentions. Amen.

February 2nd, the Church celebrates

THE WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE

Let us pray for those who have responded to the prompting of the Holy Spirit to be a consecrated person that they may experience the support of the Church as they continue their growth in holiness. As they consecrated themselves to God by the vows of chastity, poverty and obedience that they may seek to live their baptismal promises more intensely and have the grace to persevere in their commitment to the Lord and serve with open hearts and willing spirits.

February 3rd

SAINT BLAISE

Bishop, Martyr, Patron of those with throat diseases, wool-combers and wild animals.

Virtually nothing is known with certainty about St. Blaise. It is believed, that he studied philosophy and later became a physician. In his profession as physician he witnessed many miseries of life and resolved to spend his life in God's service. Known is that, after the death of the Bishop of Sebaste, in Armenia, St. Blaise was appointed bishop. Legend has it that in order to escape persecution under Licinius he took refuge in a cave and lived with wild animals, which he cured of various ailments. St. Blaise was found, seized and taken to prison to be interrogated. On his way to prison a mother, whose child suffered from a disease of the throat implored his aid. At his intercession the child was cured. It is said that St. Blaise promised that anyone who lit a taper in his memory would be free of infection. (Hence the two tapers in the form of a cross when the priest blesses throats) According to legend St. Blaise had been put to death by having his flesh torn by metal wool combs and so died a martyr's death.

Lord, hear Your people through the intercession of Saint Blaise. Help us to enjoy peace in this life and find a lasting refuge in the next. Amen.

Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament

O my God, I firmly believe that You are really and corporally present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar. I adore You here present from the very depths of my heart, and I worship Your sacred presence with all possible humility. O my soul, what joy to have Jesus Christ always with us, and to be able to speak to Him, heart to heart, with all confidence. Grant, O Lord, that I, having adored Your divine Majesty here on earth in this wonderful Sacrament, may be able to adore It eternally in heaven. Amen.
