FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We are Christ's disciples... As such, we are called, to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world. This is a wonderful task but a difficult one. Let us reflect on how much we need God's help if we are to be faithful.

Do not be afraid. If the Lord is calling you to the ordained or consecrated life, do not be afraid. Jesus calls and will give you the grace to respond wholeheartedly. If God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon contact Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997 or email vocations@vocations.ca www.vocationstoronto.ca

Prayer for Vocations

O God, Who wills not the death of a sinner, but rather that he be converted and live, grant we beseech You, through the intercession of the Blessed Mary ever Virgin, Saint Joseph her spouse, and all the saints, an increase of labourers for Your church, fellow labourers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls, through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

SAINTS PAUL MIKI AND COMPANIONS
Martyrs

In 1597, forty-five years after St. Francis Xavier had evangelized much of Japan, St. Paul Miki and twenty-five others were martyred. Those martyred were three Japanese Jesuits: Paul Miki, John Goto, James Kisai; Six Franciscans, four of whom were Spanish: Peter Baptist, Martin de Aguirre, Francis Blanco, Francis of St. Michael; one Mexican: Philip de las Casas, and one Indian, Gonsalo Garcia; the other seventeen were Japanese lay people, including a soldier, physician and altar boys. All were pierced with a lance like their Savior.

God our Father, grant us through their intercession, the courage to be loyal to our Faith until our death. Amen.

ST. JOSEPHINE BAKHITA

St. Josephine Bakhita was born into a large and loving family in western Sudan, as a member of the Daju tribe. When she was 7 or 8 years old she was kidnapped at gun-point by a pair of slave-traders. Her older sister had been kidnapped two years earlier. When asked her name she could not answer so one of her captors dubbed her, sarcastically Bakhita, which means "lucky one". She and another girl were taken to the slave market, but managed to escape. They were captured and after a long forced march eastward were sold to an Arab chief, whose daughters were quite kind to her, but the son beat her unconscious, from which she took a month to recover. She then was sold to a Turkish army general, where she was mistreated by his mother and wife. She was tattooed with about 140 cuts on the chest, belly and arms into which they rubbed salt to keep the wounds open, a traditional mark of ownership. Some 3 years later Bakhita was purchased by the Italian consul who freed her and employed her as maid. Now she was treated more kindly. Late in 1884 the consul escaped from Khartoum with his family and Bakhita asked to be taken with them. Bakhita was given to a friend of the consul and she became nanny to his daughter. In 1889 she was introduced to the Christian faith by the family's business administrator. He gave her a crucifix and began telling her about Jesus. On January 9, 1890 Bakhita was baptized, taking the name Josephine, received Holy Communion for the first time and was confirmed. Three years later she joined the Canossian Sisters in Venice as novice and was professed in 1896, after being examined by the new cardinal who later became Pope Pius X. She became known for her kindness and goodness. She was called "Little Brown Mother". She spent the years of the Second World War in Schio, where the nuns were convinced that her saintly presence protected them from bombing. She died on February 8, 1947 of pneumonia, was beatified in 1992 and canonized October 1, 2000.

Lord, our help and guide, make Your love the foundation of our lives. May our love for You express itself in our eagerness to do good. Amen

February 11th
WORLD DAY OF THE SICK

Let us pray for all who are sick:

Lord we are Your people – You have called us by name. Heal those in our midst, who are wounded and sick; stretch out Your saving hand to touch those in pain.

Strengthen those who in pain. Strengthen those who are weak. Bring back those who have wandered away from You. Help us to know the Father's love, through Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. Help us to live that love, and spread it all over this land. Teach us to act justly and to grow in faith, hope and love for You.

Lord, in Your goodness, we ask You to give us strength. Help us all become instruments of Your hope, Your love and Your peace. Amen.

February 11th
OUR LADY OF LOURDES

The Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of our Lord Jesus Christ, appeared to humble Bernadette Soubirous for the first time on the 11th of February 1858, in a cave at Massabielle near the town of Lourdes, France. Seventeen more apparitions followed. When Bernadette asked the Beautiful Lady her name, she answered: "I am the Immaculate Conception."

The appearance of the Blessed Virgin Mary, to Bernadette Soubirous, is one of the most dramatic and engrossing stories and led to the veneration of Mary as "Our Lady of Lourdes". The miraculous and indisputable cures, which have taken place at the place of Mary's appearance, made Lourdes a place of great devotion, a devotion which spontaneously sprang up to Our Lady of Lourdes all over the world.

Holy Mary, ever Immaculate Virgin, Mother of Mercy, Health of the sick and Refuge of sinners. You revealed yourself to Bernadette as the Immaculate Conception and made the place of your appearance a place where you dispense your favors. Heal us poor sinners from our spiritual and corporal infirmities. Help us to imitate your virtues so we may grow closer to your Son Jesus Christ.
Amen

PARISH NEWS

Remember we are celebrating Holy Mass every weekday morning (Monday to Friday) at 7:30 in our church. What a wonderful way to start the day. Before Mass we honour our Holy Mother by praying the Holy Rosary. Come and join us. Please come and celebrate Holy Mass with us.
