SAINT TURIBIUS OF MONGROVEJO

Patron of Latin American Bishops

Turibius was born about 1538 in Spain in the Province of Leon. He was a brilliant law student and became a well-known teacher of law. He became chief judge to the inquisition of Granada. At that time the State exercised control over the church and so it was that King Philip II needed to choose an Archbishop to replace the recently deceased Jeronima de Loaiza, first Archbishop of Lima Peru. He chose Turibius., who arrived in Lima in May 1581, the centre of the Archdiocese for all Spanish South America. He was appalled how the conquerors exploited the country and subjected the native people to tyranny and injustice. He condemned these abuses and provided for their spiritual and physical needs of the natives. It was vital for him and all the clergy to learn the local languages to be able to teach them. Turibius also tried to understand the Indian mind and often lived with them in their dwellings. He established the first seminary in Latin America. He founded numerous schools, hospitals and churches. He personally baptized and confirmed about half a million people, including South America's two best-known Saints; -Rose of Lima and Martin de Porres. Saint Turibius died March 23, 1606 and was canonized in the year 1726.

God, You increased Your Church by means of the apostolic care and zeal for truth of St. Turibius, Your Bishop. Grant that the people who have been consecrated to You may experience a increase of Faith and holiness. Amen

OSCAR ROMERO

Martyr

Romero was born on 15 August 1917 to Santos Romero and Guadalupe de Jesús Galdámez in the San Miguel department of El Salvador. And was baptized on 11 May 1919, at the age of one, He had five brothers and two sisters: At the age of thirteen. He entered the minor seminary in San Miguel but left the seminary for three months to return home when his mother became ill. After graduation he enrolled in the national seminary in San Salvador. He completed his studies at the Gregorian University in Rome in 1941, but had to wait a year to be ordained. In 1970, Romero was appointed an auxiliary bishop for the Archdiocese of San Salvador. In 1974, he was appointed Bishop of the Diocese of Santiago de María, a poor, rural region. On 23 February 1977, Romero was appointed Archbishop of San Salvador. While this appointment was welcomed by the government, many priests were disappointed, especially those openly supportive of Marxist ideology. On 24 March 1980, Romero delivered a sermon in which he called on Salvadoran soldiers, as Christians, to obey God's higher order and to stop carrying out the government's repression and violations of basic human rights. In 1980, Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass in the chapel. In 1980, Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass in the chapel of the Hospital of Divine Providence.

October 14th, 2018 Oscar Romero was canonized by Pope Francis.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

“Unless you repent, you will all likewise perish.” These words were addressed by Jesus to his contemporaries, and are addressed to us in today’s liturgy. We always begin our celebration of the Eucharist with a call to repentance. Let us listen to that call now.

The Lord is kind and merciful and calls us to proclaim His Name. Consider service in the priesthood or consecrated life. If God is calling you, to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997. Email vocations@archtoronto.org www.vocationstoronto.ca

ANNUNCIATION OF THE LORD

This feast commemorates the Archangel Gabriel's annunciation to the Blessed Virgin Mary that she was to be the Mother of the promised Redeemer. Mary, the obedient and faithful woman generously agreed. And so God the Son, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, by the power of the Holy Spirit, assumed a human body and a human soul, and became the Son of Mary. Therefore this feast is a joint celebration of Christ and the Blessed Virgin – of the Word who becomes the Son of Mary and of Mary who becomes the Mother of God. With this feast we celebrate the beginning of our redemption.

God our Father, Your Word became man and was born of the Virgin Mary. May we become more like Jesus Christ, whom we acknowledge as our redeemer, God and man. Amen.

THE LITURGICAL SEASON OF LENT ...

Lent is a solemn and reflective liturgical season during which we prepare for the mysteries of Easter. Lent lasts forty days (Sundays not included). The forty days of Lent recall the forty days that Jesus spent in the desert before he began his public ministry. During Lent we are called to renew ourselves through fasting, prayer and alms-giving (giving money and service to those in need). Lent provides us an opportunity to examine our faith and to deepen our commitment to live a Christian life. Lent also asks of us to enter into a closer communication with God, to further develop our personal relationship with Him. We may choose to attend Mass more frequently during Lent, to make the Stations of the Cross, to spend a holy hour with the Blessed Sacrament or to spend extra time in personal prayer or spiritual readings. By entering into these devotions, we remove ourselves from the distractions of the busy modern world and allow ourselves the opportunity not only to speak to God but to hear Him speaking to us in the stillness of our hearts. We are asked to share our gifts of time, of treasure and of talent with those who have less than we have or who are in need. Acts of charity represent the living out of our faith. Through faith, we profess belief in Jesus; through charity, we put into practice what He taught us.

A Prayer for Hope in Lasting Peace

Father God, we know that You are the giver of all good things, including times of peace. Yet, even amid peaceful times, some seek to cause upheaval and war on the Earth.

Therefore, we ask that You allow the peace on Earth to endure through the schemes of these wicked people. Give us hope in the establishment of Your kingdom. Let Your peace that surpasses all understanding keep all the Earth in Christ. Amen.

NO BODY NOW BUT OURS

Christ has no body now on earth but ours,
No hands but ours, no feet but ours.
Ours are the eyes through which the compassion of Christ looks out upon the world;
Ours are the feet with which he goes about doing good;
Ours are the hands with which he blesses us now.
