SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to his apostles, "Peace I leave with you, my own peace I give you." We can't give peace to others if we don't have it ourselves. Jesus was able to give peace to others because he had it himself. The Lord will give us too his peace.

Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him and we will come to Him. How will I respond to that love? Am I being called to the priesthood, diaconate or religious life? If God is calling you contact Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997 email vocations@archtoronto.org www.vocationstoronto.ca

Prayer for Vocations

O God, Who wills not the death of a sinner, but rather that he be converted and live, grant we beseech You, through the intercession of the Blessed Mary ever Virgin, Saint Joseph her spouse, and all the saints, an increase of labourers for Your church, fellow labourers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls, through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

OUR LADY, HELP OF CHRISTIANS

When Napoleon, who had conquered Papal States before his exile to Elba, left Elba and returned to Paris to reclaim his power, Murat, French Marshall and King of Naples, prepared to march through the Papal States. Pope Pius VII fled to Savona, where on May 10, 1815 he crowned the image of Our Lady of Mercy. July 7, 1815, after the Congress of Vienna he returned to Rome. In gratitude he instituted the feast of "Our Lady, Help of Christians" to be celebrated in the Papal States. In 1816 the Dioceses of Tuscany adopted the feast and from there it has spread throughout the Latin Church. When St. John Bosco, dedicated the Salesian Congregation in 1868, to Our Lady, Help of Christians, this Feast has attained great fame.

ST. BEDE THE VENERABLE

Doctor of the Church

St. Bede was born in England about the year 673. At the age of 7 he was sent to a Benedict Monastery to be educated. Later he became a Benedict Monk. St. Bede was a most learned man of his time and a gifted writer. He wrote many historical works and beautiful biographies about the lives of Anglo-Saxon Saints. Up to the hour of his death on Ascension Day 735 this Saint was engaged in translating the Gospel of St. John from the Greek. While singing "Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost" - just as he said "Holy Ghost" his soul went forth to meet his Triune God.

All-powerful God, You blessed Saint Bede by giving him the gift of writing. Help us, through his prayers that we may recognize the gifts you have given us and help us to put them to use in your service. We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord. Amen.

ST. PHILIP NERI

Patron of Catholic Missions in Canada.

St. Philip Neri, was born in Florence, Italy in the year 1515. As child he was already known as "Pippo Buono" (good little Philip) At the age of 18 he was sent to a childless, wealthy relative to become the heir. But God had other plans for him. Guided by the Holy Spirit he soon left for Rome without money or specific plans. When in Rome, he lived in a unfurnished room spending long hours in prayer. Soon he started his "street-corner" apostolate. He encouraged passer-bys to begin to do good" by caring for the sick, aiding the poor and enlightening the uninstructed. Directed by his confessor Philip studied for the priesthood and was ordained May 23, 1551. He laboured unceasingly for the salvation of souls and was so successful, that he was called "Apostle of Rome". St. Philip Neri enjoyed many mystical experiences. God granted him the gifts of prophecy and insight into souls. He celebrated the Holy Eucharist and heard confessions up to the last full day of his life where the people acclaimed him immediately a Saint. He was beatified 6 years after his death and canonized in 1623.

Mother of the Church

Gracious Lady, you are Mother and Virgin; you are the mother of the body and soul of our Head and Redeemer; you are also truly mother of all the members of Christ's Mystical Body. For through your love, you have cooperated in the begetting of the faithful in the Church. Unique among women you are Mother and Virgin: Virgin and Mother of Christ. You are the beauty and charm of earth, O Virgin. You are forever the image of the holy Church. Through a woman came death; through a woman came life, yes, through you, O Mother of God! Amen.
