FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Advent is a time of watchfulness. We are waiting for the final coming of Christ at the end of time. And we are also waiting for his coming to us at the time of our death. Since both times are hidden from us, we should maintain a state of watchfulness so that we are ready to meet the Lord at any moment.

“They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.” If God is calling you to ministerial service, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997 email vocations@archtoronto.org www.vocationstoronto.ca

Prayer for the Perseverance of Vocations

O God, You have constituted Your only-begotten Son supreme and eternal Priest for the glory of Your majesty and the salvation of mankind; grant that those whom He has chosen ministers and dispensers of His mysteries may be found faithful in fulfilling the ministry that have received. Amen.

November 30th

SAINT ANDREW

Apostle, Patron of Scotland, Russia and of Fishermen

St. Andrew, the brother of St. Peter, was, like his brother, a fisherman by profession. Being a disciple of John the Baptist, he was present at Jesus’ Baptism, after which he followed Jesus and also brought him his brother Simon Peter. Andrew is known as the first disciple of Jesus. When Jesus chose his apostles, Andrew was among the Twelve. - It is uncertain where Andrew preached or where he died, but legend tells us he suffered martyrdom at Patras by crucifixion on a cross in the form of an X.

Lord, You raised up St. Andrew, Your Apostle, to preach and rule in Your Church. Grant that we may always experience the benefit of his intercession with You. Amen.

December 1st

SAINT EDMUND CAMPION

Patron of Guardian Angels Parish’s Secondary School.

St. Edmund Campion was born in London, England in the year 1540. He grew up in Queen Mary’s reign, who restored Catholicism as state religion and was raised a Catholic. Edmund was brilliant, humorous and daring. At the age of 15 he was given a scholarship to St. John’s College, Oxford and soon build a great reputation as orator. After Queen Mary’s execution, Edmund Campion, to further his academic life, took an oath, acknowledging Queen Elizabeth as head of the Church of England and became an Anglican deacon in 1564. Doubts about England’s state religion increasingly troubled him. 1569 he left England for Dublin, Ireland. Further studies convinced him, that he had been in error and he returned to Catholicism. 1571 Edmund returned to England, where, because of her excommunication by Pope Pius V, Queen Elizabeth made it very difficult for professed Catholics. Edmund went to Douai, France There he attended the English College and studied theology and earned a bachelor degree of divinity and was ordained a sub-deacon. He moved to Rome and joined the Society of Jesus, known to us as the “Jesuits”. He was assigned to Brno, Bohemia to complete his novitiate and later taught in Prague, where, in 1578 he was ordained. In 1579 he and Father Robert Persons were chosen for the English Mission and were sent to England in 1580. English Catholics were uneasy because they considered Jesuits too zealous and were afraid, that their already bad situation would get worse. Edmund preached in Lancashire where those who heard him remembered his sermons fifty years later. Edmund believed, that he merely had to win arguments intellectually to get a fair hearing The premature publication of his famous Brag, which he had written to present in case he was captured, made him the object of one of the most intensive manhunts. He was betrayed and imprisoned in the Tower of London. The Queen herself gave him an opportunity to renounce his Catholic faith and become a Protestant minister. When he refused the offer, he was charged with treason, not for political reasons, but for religious ones. He then was put in chains, tortured for 11 days, after which he was hanged, drawn and quartered at Tyburn on December 1st, 1581. St. Edmund Campion was canonized by Pope Paul VI in 1970 as one of forty English and Welsh Martyrs.

December 3rd

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER
Patron of Foreign Missions

St. Francis Xavier was born 1506 at the castle of Xavier in Navarre, Spain. At the age of 18 he went to Paris to study philosophy where 4 years later he met St. Ignatius Loyola. St. Francis was full of worldly ambitions, but the company of St. Ignatius changed him. He went to Venice and was ordained a priest in 1537. 1541 he set sail for India. The following year he landed in Goa. He extended his apostolic labours to the coast of Malabar, to Travancor, Malacca, the Moluccas and Cylon, today's Sri Lanka. In all these places he converted large numbers to Christianity. 1549 he carried the light of Faith to Japan where he remained for 2 years. 1552 he set sail for China, he arrived at Sancian, where a fever seized him. He died alone on Friday, December 2nd, 1552 at the age of 46.

God our Father, by the preaching of Francis Xavier You brought many nations to Yourself Give his zeal for the faith to all who believe in You, that Your Church may rejoice in continued growth throughout the world. Amen.

THE WORD ADVENT means "coming" or "arrival". We focus the entire season on the celebration of the Birth of Jesus, the Christ in His First Advent and in anticipation of the return of Christ the King in His Second Advent. Thus Advent is far more than simply remembering an event more than 2000 year ago. We are celebrating a truth about God, that Jesus, the Messiah, reconciled all creation to God. We must wait with steadfast hope for Jesus' glorious return to benefit from Christ's sacrifice, and conduct our lives pleasing to God as we wait.

CONFESSIONS IN PREPERATION OF CHRISTMAS

Lord, You reward virtue and forgive the repentant sinner. Grant us Your forgiveness as we come before You confessing our guilt. Amen.

ACT OF CONTRITION (traditional)

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins because of thy just punishments, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, who art all good and deserving of all my love.
