SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus says, "If you are bringing your offering to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your offering there before that altar, go and be reconciled with you brother first, and then come back and present your offering." Let us reflect on those words for a moment and confess our sins to God and to one another.

"No eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him." If you feel you are being invited to spread the Good News of God's love as a priest, deacon, brother or sister, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, at 416-968-0997. email vocations@archtoronto.org

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, call many members of our community to be generous workers for your people and to gather in your harvest. Send them to share the Good News of Jesus with all the people of the earth. Father, we ask this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen!

SAINT VALENTINE

Priest and Martyr. Patron of Greetings.

In the time of Emperor Claudius II, known also as Claudius the Cruel, St. Valentine and St. Marius, were dedicated Christians and refused to worship the twelve gods Claudius ordered them to worship. They assisted the martyrs of Rome who suffered during the reign of Emperor. Christianity was punishable by death. St. Valentine was apprehended, arrested and imprisoned for his faith. Legend tells us that during his last weeks, a jailer asked St. Valentine to teach his daughter Julia. Julia was blind from birth. St. Valentine taught her how to pray and Julia believed and asked God to heal her blindness. As they prayed together for her healing a bright light shone into the jail and Julia was healed. On the evening of his death, St. Valentine wrote one more note to Julia telling her to stay close to God and signed it "From your Valentine". (Hence the custom of messages of affection and love was born.) The next day, February 14, in the year 270, St. Valentine was sent to the Prefect of Rome, who commanded that he be beaten with clubs and afterward beheaded. St. Valentine loved God and his fellow martyrs to the end.

*God of power and mercy, through Your help
St. Valentine has overcome the tortures of his passion. Help us who celebrate his triumph to remain victorious over the wiles of our enemies. Amen.*

CYRIL AND METHODIUS

Patrons of the unity of the Eastern and Western Churches

Methodius born in 826 and his brother Cyril who's name was Constantine, until just before his death, was born 827. The brothers grew up as sons of a prominent Christian family in Thessalonica and were educated in Constantinople.. It is assumed Constantine and Methodius were familiar with the Slavic language. Methodius became an important civil official, but grew tired of worldly affairs and retired to a monastery. Constantine became a scholar and a professor known as "the Philosopher" in Constantinople. In 860 Constantine and Methodius went as missionaries to what is today the Ukraine. They were able administrators, and had already proven themselves successful missionaries. In Rome they brothers gave an account of their missionary work and were consecrated Bishops by Pope Hadrian II. Cyril died in Rome in 869 leaving Methodius to continue his missionary work which he did with success in Moravia, Bohemia and Poland. He died in Moravia in 883

SAINT JULIANA

Virgin, Martyr

St. Juliana, a native of Cumae in Campania, Italy, was born in the third century into a house in which her father worshiped statues of Roman gods. Juliana herself knew believed in the one true God and in Jesus in whom she believed with all her heart and soul and committed her life to Him. She, true to the teachings of Jesus, shared her wealth with fellow Christians. When Juliana turned 18 her father gave her to Eleusius, Prefect of Cumae, to be married. She had no objection to this union in the believe she could convert her fiancée to the Christian Faith. She confided in him that she herself is a Christian, but her betrothed betrayed her and told her father. Her father tried to persuade to leave her Faith and worship his gods. When she refused her father handed her over to be beaten with rods and burned with boiling lead. Then he had her shackled, chained and thrown into a dungeon. There, at midnight, an angel appeared to her telling her to worship the Roman gods. When she prayed to her God, He showed her the true nature of the "angel" and told her to fight him. Miraculous her chains broke and Satan was chained. In the morning she showed the winged devil to the guards telling them that this is what their gods are like. (Today St. Juliana is pictured with a winged devil, which she leads on a chain.) at very day she was condemned to death. She was beheaded and so earned he crown of Martyrdom. It was the year 304, the year after Emperor Deocletian ordered the persecution of all Christians. Her remains were revered in her hometown till they were taken to Naples in the year 1207.

SEVEN FOUNDERS OF THE ORDER OF SERVITES

In 1233, on the feast of the Assumption seven members of a fraternity in Florence, Italy, devoted to the Holy Mother of God. As they gathered in prayer, the Blessed Virgin appeared to the young men, exhorting them to devote themselves to her service.

Once prominent businessmen of Florence retired to Monte Senario. With the approval of their Bishop these zealous Christians founded a new Order venerating the Seven Sorrows of Our Lady, hence they are called "Servants of Mary" or "Servites" Although the 'Servants of Mary' had the approval of their Bishop, they had not been recognized by the Holy See, it was only in 1259 that the Order was practically recognized by Alexander IV but not until 1304, that it received the explicit and formal approbation of Pope Benedict XI. All seven were beatified by Pope Clement XI on December 1st, 1717 and Canonized in 1887 by Pope Leo XII

Lord, infuse in us the piety of these blessed brothers by which they devoutly venerated the Mother of God and led Your people toward You. Amen.

SAINT MARIE BERNADETTE SOUBIROUS

Virgin

St. Marie Bernadette Soubirous was born at Lourdes in 1844. At fourteen years of age she witnessed eighteen apparitions of Our Blessed Lady at Lourdes, instructing her to make known the miraculous healing powers which the Blessed Virgin, by her presence, would give to the waters at Lourdes. In 1866 Bernadette Soubirous joined the Sisters of Charity at Nevers, taking her perpetual vows in 1870. Contemporaries admired her humility and the authentic character of her testimony about the appearance of the Blessed Virgin. Nevertheless she had to endure many severe trials during her religious life. She realized that the healing spring was not for her and exhibited heroic patience in sickness. She died in 1879 at the age of thirty-five.
